(Ireland)

RETURN from the POST-OFFICE in Ireland, to an Order of the Houſe of Commons, dated the 7th of July 1807;—reſpecting the Miſcarriage of Letters containing Bank Notes.

GENERAL POST-OFFICE,
DUBLIN,
17th July, 1807.

IN conſequence of an Order of the Houſe of Commons, dated the 7th Inſtant, requiring, "That there be laid before the Houſe, a Copy of a Memorial "preſented by the Bankers of Dublin to the Poſtmaſter-General of Ireland, in "the courſe of the laſt year, concerning the Miſcarriage of Letters containing "Bank Notes,"—I do hereby certify, That the Bankers of Dublin did not, in the courſe of the laſt year, or at any other period, preſent a Memorial concerning the Miſcarriage of Letters containing Bank Notes.

BY COMMAND OF THE POSTMASTER-GENERAL,

P. Thomſon.

1807 (87.) v. 53

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit